Professional Disclosure Statement

Philosophy and approach: As is an interactive, solution-focused therapist my therapeutic approach is to provide support and practical feedback to help clients effectively address personal life challenges. I integrate complementary methodologies and techniques to offer a highly personalized approach tailored to each client. With compassion and understanding, I works with each individual to help them build on their strengths and attain the personal growth they are committed to accomplishing.

I work with a wide range of emotional and behavioral issues providing services that span from therapy for depression and grief counseling to parenting support, couples counseling and beyond in a comfortable and supportive atmosphere.

Formal Education: I hold a Bachelor of Science in Human Development from Warner Pacific College and a Masters of Arts in Counseling Psychology - George Fox University.

As a registered Intern of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapist, I will abide by it's code of Ethics. I am under the ongoing supervision of Nate Bagley, which I will be happy to explain.

Fees: My fees are $75 per 50

Confidentiality: All counseling/therapy is confidential within the exceptions provided by law. These exceptions are specified in the Bill of Rights.

As a client of an Oregon licensee [or Registered Intern] you have the following rights:

- :: To expect that a licensee has met the minimal qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
- :: To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee;
- :: To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics;
- :: To report complaints to the Board;
- :: To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
- :: To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule and law, including the following exceptions: 1) Reporting suspected child abuse; 2) Reporting imminent danger to client or others; 3) Reporting information required in court proceedings or by client's insurance company, or other relevant agencies; 4) Providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision; and 5) Defending claims brought by client against licensee;
- :: To be free from discrimination because of age, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, national origin, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, or socioeconomic status.
